

НАЦИОНАЛЬНАЯ ОДЕЖДА – МЮНХЕНСКИЙ РЕБЕНОК

Надглазурь

Эскиз: Эрнст Андреас Раух, 1945 г.

высота 13 см · Арт. № 01.930

Although the sculptor Ernst Andreas Rauch, born in Teisendorf in northern Bavaria, was not a “Munich Child Monk”, in 1945 he designed for the Manufactory such a splendid porcelain version of the figure on Munich’s official coat of arms. Enraptured, the child monk, just 13 centimetres tall, takes the oath. He is clutching the Gospel in his left hand. The boy’s reverent yet impish expression and the fluttering folds of his cowl continue the masterly tradition of the Manufactory’s master workshops.
